

Immediate opening for ONE Full-Time or TWO Part-Time X-RAY Technologists (Medical Radiography Technologist)

Duties & Responsibilities

- Performs all general duty radiographic procedures in accordance with established standards, procedures and protocols.
- Collaborative working relationship with radiologists, physicians and support staff.
- Ensures relative data is collected for all procedures.
- Prepares patient for diagnostic imaging procedures, verifying relevant patient information and explaining the x-ray exam and what to expect before, during and after.
- Keeping up-to-date documentation on new procedures and/or protocols, equipment maintenance records, etc.

Qualifications

- Graduate of an accredited medical radiography program.
- Certification of either CAMRT designation OR CSCLXT designation.
- Strong communication skills.
- Experience is an asset, but new graduates are encouraged to apply.

Benefits

- Regular weekday shifts, with possibility of a job sharing scenario.
- Employees enjoy working in a modern and clean facility with easy access and free parking.
- Extended health and dental, RRSP program, 3 weeks vacation for a 1.0FTE.
- Annual educational support

About Us

- Community-based private out-patient diagnostic imaging facility in the BC Interior.
- Provide high quality diagnostic services to the community and surrounding area.
- Our corporate mission is attained through values that embrace respect, accountability, safety, integrity, teamwork and collaboration.
- www.AberdeenUltrasoundAndXray.ca and FB: Aberdeen Ultrasound & X-Ray

Join our incredible team in Kamloops, BC!!!!

Earliest Potential Start Date: February 1, 2022

Resumes may be sent attention to:

Jacqueline Irwin, HR Administrator

Jacq.irwin@shaw.ca